

Announcements.

MRS. JAS. H. BARCLAY (formerly Miss Viola Finch) has the pleasure to announce to her friends and the public that her Grand Concert will take place at Cooper Institute, on WEDNESDAY EVENING, Feb. 22, 1860, assisted by the following eminent talents:

GUSTAV SATZ, Pianist. Mr. E. PERRING, Tenor.

Mr. SCURBIE, and others. M. GUILMETTE, Bassoon.

Mr. H. C. TIMM, Accompanist.

Tickets $1.00 each. For sale at the principal hotels and music stores, and at the door on the evening of the concert.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—DER FREYSCHUTZ TO-NIGHT.

This morning commences the sale of seats for this evening's DER FREYSCHUTZ and to-morrow's SAFFO.

(THIS THURSDAY) EVENING, Feb. 16, at 8.

Second, and last night, the Academy of the Company, last night of Weber's highly successful Opera of "DER FREYSCHUTZ."

Which was so enthusiastically received on Friday last, it will be given in its perfect case, including COLSON, Mad. STRAKOSCH, STIGEL, and JUNCA. Splendid new scenes by CALVO.

On SATURDAY NEXT, Feb. 18, at 1 o'clock.

LAST PATTI MATINEE, with Rosina's operas of THE BARBER OF SEVILLE, and others.

With its extraordinary cast, including MISS PATTI.

BRIGNOLI, FERRI, AMODIO, SUSINI.

Miss PATTI's addition to all the music of the Opera, will sing, during CONCERT OF THE MUSIC LESSON.

Eckert's popular "ECHOLSONG" expressly composed for Miss PATTI, and others, will be sung COMING

THROUGH THE RYE, and the "ADELINA WALZ," especially composed for Miss Patti by Sig. Mistu.

Notice.—On this occasion Miss PATTI will make her last appearance at a Matinee prior to her departure.

It is most gratifyingly informed that Miss PATTI has added to her repertoire the character of "Martha," which she will sing in the course of next week, for the first time since her appearance on the stage.

LUTHER LAMBERT.—See notice.

TO THE PUBLIC.—Notice will be given of Miss PATTI's appearance as "Lucia."

THE GRAND GERMAN NIGHT.—In active preparation, Flotow's "Operas of SIR LEWIS," which will be the only opera performed.

TO THE PUBLIC.—The great success of the Oratorio, given on SUNDAY LAST, has induced the Directors to give another performance on SUNDAY FEB. 26.

When will be performed Donizetti's I MARTIRI, to the entire music of Il Politeo.

Arranged as an Oratorio, to all parts, Fifty Cents.

ENGLISH CONCERTS.

NEW AND ELEGANT ENTERTAINMENTS.

THEATRE FRANCAIS.

English Ballads, Glee, Duets, Trios, Quartettes and Madrigals.

Mrs. J. M. MOZART, Soprano.

Miss E. M. HAWLEY, Contralto.

Mr. W. H. COOPER, Bass.

Mr. PATTISON, Pianist.

Mr. G. W. MORGAN, Conductor.

A DOUBLE QUARTETTE OF MALE VOICES.

An Educated Orchestra, and Appropriate Scenery.

Tickets, (choice seats), .50 cents

Promenade, .25 cents

Subscription for the Series, .61.

FRIDAY, Feb. 24.

MONDAY, Feb. 27.

See Programme.

G R A N D C O N C E R T

OF THE SEVENTH REGIMENT

NATIONAL GUARD BAND,

ACADEMY OF MUSIC,

SATURDAY EVENING, Feb. 15.

Assisted by the following Eminent Artists:

Mrs. COLSON and STRAKOSCH.

Singers STIGEL, AMODIO and JUNCA.

Mr. LOUIS SCHREIBER, Cornet.

Conductors of Orchestra, Meers, MUO TO and CARL BERGMANN.

Conductor of Band, Mr. C. S. GRAFFULIA.

Mr. MAURICE STRAKOSCH will preside at the Piano-Forte.

Hours open at 5 o'clock; Concert to commence at 7 o'clock.

Tickets for sale at Fifth, Pond & Co.'s, No. 547 Broadway.

SCOTCH BALALD CONCERT.—Mr. GEO. SIMPSON has much pleasure in announcing to his friends and the Scottish residents of New York that the above Concert will take place on THURSDAY, Feb. 16, 1860.

at Dwyer's Hall, 155 Broadway, where he will be assisted by the following talented artists: Mrs. J. M. Mozart, soprano; Mr. R. Thomas, Tenor; Mr. A. Sedgwick, Bass; Mr. Charles Wickwick, English concertina.

Mr. G. W. MARSH, English concertina.

Tickets 50 cents. Seats at the door.

To commence at 8 o'clock precisely.

WALLACK'S THEATER.

Dances at 7, to commence at 7:30 o'clock.

15 MINUTES INTERMISSION.

BETWEEN THE THIRD AND FOURTH ACTS,

FOR THE ACCOMMODATION OF THE PUBLIC.

* * * * * * *

REFRESHMENTS.

FOURTH WEEK

TO-NIGHT.

AND EVERY EVENING TILL FURTHER NOTICE,

THE EXTRANCE

OF

A POOR YOUNG MAN.

Adapted expressly for the Stage by Frank Edwards and Lester Wallack.

PROLOGUE.

Manuel Marquis de Chamoy. — Mr. Lester Wallack

Doctor D'Amato (French Army) Mr. Brougham

Madame Van Herger (formerly nurse to Manuel, now keeper of a lodging-house). — Mrs. Walcott

THE DRAMA.

The following section of the Act, April 14, 1859, is published for the information of tax-payers:

SECTION 10. During the time the books shall be open for payment of taxes, and no claim made, application may be made by any person, considering himself aggrieved by the assessed valuation of his real or personal estate, to call and examine the same in order that any errors in the assessments may be corrected. Also, all persons entitled by law to reduction of taxes, by reason of their being engaged in military services; and also literary or charitable institutions, by law exempt from taxation, are requested to make application for such reduction, and exemption, previous to the closing of the year.

The following section of the Act, April 14, 1859, is published for the information of tax-payers:

SECTION 10. During the time the books shall be open for payment of taxes, and no claim made, application may be made by any person, considering himself aggrieved by the assessed valuation of his real or personal estate, to call and examine the same in order that any errors in the assessments may be corrected. Also, all persons entitled by law to reduction of taxes, by reason of their being engaged in military services; and also literary or charitable institutions, by law exempt from taxation, are requested to make application for such reduction, and exemption, previous to the closing of the year.

The following section of the Act, April 14, 1859, is published for the information of tax-payers:

SECTION 10. During the time the books shall be open for payment of taxes, and no claim made, application may be made by any person, considering himself aggrieved by the assessed valuation of his real or personal estate, to call and examine the same in order that any errors in the assessments may be corrected. Also, all persons entitled by law to reduction of taxes, by reason of their being engaged in military services; and also literary or charitable institutions, by law exempt from taxation, are requested to make application for such reduction, and exemption, previous to the closing of the year.

The following section of the Act, April 14, 1859, is published for the information of tax-payers:

SECTION 10. During the time the books shall be open for payment of taxes, and no claim made, application may be made by any person, considering himself aggrieved by the assessed valuation of his real or personal estate, to call and examine the same in order that any errors in the assessments may be corrected. Also, all persons entitled by law to reduction of taxes, by reason of their being engaged in military services; and also literary or charitable institutions, by law exempt from taxation, are requested to make application for such reduction, and exemption, previous to the closing of the year.

The following section of the Act, April 14, 1859, is published for the information of tax-payers:

SECTION 10. During the time the books shall be open for payment of taxes, and no claim made, application may be made by any person, considering himself aggrieved by the assessed valuation of his real or personal estate, to call and examine the same in order that any errors in the assessments may be corrected. Also, all persons entitled by law to reduction of taxes, by reason of their being engaged in military services; and also literary or charitable institutions, by law exempt from taxation, are requested to make application for such reduction, and exemption, previous to the closing of the year.

The following section of the Act, April 14, 1859, is published for the information of tax-payers:

SECTION 10. During the time the books shall be open for payment of taxes, and no claim made, application may be made by any person, considering himself aggrieved by the assessed valuation of his real or personal estate, to call and examine the same in order that any errors in the assessments may be corrected. Also, all persons entitled by law to reduction of taxes, by reason of their being engaged in military services; and also literary or charitable institutions, by law exempt from taxation, are requested to make application for such reduction, and exemption, previous to the closing of the year.

The following section of the Act, April 14, 1859, is published for the information of tax-payers:

SECTION 10. During the time the books shall be open for payment of taxes, and no claim made, application may be made by any person, considering himself aggrieved by the assessed valuation of his real or personal estate, to call and examine the same in order that any errors in the assessments may be corrected. Also, all persons entitled by law to reduction of taxes, by reason of their being engaged in military services; and also literary or charitable institutions, by law exempt from taxation, are requested to make application for such reduction, and exemption, previous to the closing of the year.

The following section of the Act, April 14, 1859, is published for the information of tax-payers:

SECTION 10. During the time the books shall be open for payment of taxes, and no claim made, application may be made by any person, considering himself aggrieved by the assessed valuation of his real or personal estate, to call and examine the same in order that any errors in the assessments may be corrected. Also, all persons entitled by law to reduction of taxes, by reason of their being engaged in military services; and also literary or charitable institutions, by law exempt from taxation, are requested to make application for such reduction, and exemption, previous to the closing of the year.

The following section of the Act, April 14, 1859, is published for the information of tax-payers:

SECTION 10. During the time the books shall be open for payment of taxes, and no claim made, application may be made by any person, considering himself aggrieved by the assessed valuation of his real or personal estate, to call and examine the same in order that any errors in the assessments may be corrected. Also, all persons entitled by law to reduction of taxes, by reason of their being engaged in military services; and also literary or charitable institutions, by law exempt from taxation, are requested to make application for such reduction, and exemption, previous to the closing of the year.

The following section of the Act, April 14, 1859, is published for the information of tax-payers:

SECTION 10. During the time the books shall be open for payment of taxes, and no claim made, application may be made by any person, considering himself aggrieved by the assessed valuation of his real or personal estate, to call and examine the same in order that any errors in the assessments may be corrected. Also, all persons entitled by law to reduction of taxes, by reason of their being engaged in military services; and also literary or charitable institutions, by law exempt from taxation, are requested to make application for such reduction, and exemption, previous to the closing of the year.

The following section of the Act, April 14, 1859, is published for the information of tax-payers:

SECTION 10. During the time the books shall be open for payment of taxes, and no claim made, application may be made by any person, considering himself aggrieved by the assessed valuation of his real or personal estate, to call and examine the same in order that any errors in the assessments may be corrected. Also, all persons entitled by law to reduction of taxes, by reason of their being engaged in military services; and also literary or charitable institutions, by law exempt from taxation, are requested to make application for such reduction, and exemption, previous to the closing of the year.

The following section of the Act, April 14, 1859, is published for the information of tax-payers:

SECTION 10. During the time the books shall be open for payment of taxes, and no claim made, application may be made by any person, considering himself aggrieved by the assessed valuation of his real or personal estate, to call and examine the same in order that any errors in the assessments may be corrected. Also, all persons entitled by law to reduction of taxes, by reason of their being engaged in military services; and also literary or charitable institutions, by law exempt from taxation, are requested to make application for such reduction, and exemption, previous to the closing of the year.

The following section of the Act, April 14, 1859, is published for the information of tax-payers:

SECTION 10. During the time the books shall be open for payment of taxes, and no claim made, application may be made by any person, considering himself aggrieved by the assessed valuation of his real or personal estate, to call and examine the same in order that any errors in the assessments may be corrected. Also, all persons entitled by law to reduction of taxes, by reason of their being engaged in military services; and also literary or charitable institutions, by law exempt from taxation, are requested to make application for such reduction, and exemption, previous to the closing of the year.

The following section of the Act, April 14, 1859, is published for the information of tax-payers:

SECTION 10. During the time the books shall be open for payment of taxes, and no claim made, application may be made by any person, considering himself aggrieved by the assessed valuation of his real or personal estate, to call and examine the same in order that any errors in the assessments may be corrected. Also, all persons entitled by law to reduction of taxes, by reason of their being engaged in military services; and also literary or charitable institutions, by law exempt from taxation, are requested to make application for such reduction, and exemption, previous to the closing of the year.

The following section of the Act, April 14, 1859, is published for the information of tax-payers:

SECTION 10. During the time the books shall be open for payment of taxes, and no claim made, application may be made by any person, considering himself aggrieved by the assessed valuation of his real or personal estate, to call and examine the same in order that any errors in the assessments may be corrected. Also, all persons entitled by law to reduction of taxes, by reason of their being engaged in military services; and also literary or charitable institutions, by law exempt from taxation, are requested to make application for such reduction, and exemption, previous to the closing of the year.

The following section of the Act, April 14, 1859, is published for the information of tax-payers:

SECTION 10. During the time the books shall be open for payment of taxes, and no claim made, application may be made by any person, considering himself aggrieved by the assessed valuation of his real or personal estate, to call and examine the same in order that any errors in the assessments may be corrected. Also, all persons entitled by law to reduction of taxes, by reason of their being engaged in military services; and also literary or charitable institutions, by law exempt from taxation, are requested to make application for such reduction, and exemption, previous to the closing of the year.

The following section of the Act, April 14, 1859, is published for the information of tax-payers:

SECTION 10. During the time the books shall be open for payment of taxes, and no claim made, application may be made by any person, considering himself aggrieved by the assessed valuation of his real or personal estate, to call and examine the same in order that any errors in the assessments may be corrected. Also, all persons entitled by law to reduction of taxes, by reason of their being engaged in military services; and also literary or charitable institutions, by law exempt from taxation, are requested to make application for such reduction, and exemption, previous to the closing of the year.

The following section of the Act, April 14, 1859, is published for the information of tax-payers:

SECTION 10. During the time the books shall be open for payment of taxes, and no claim made, application may be made by any person, considering himself aggrieved by the assessed valuation of his real or personal estate, to call and examine the same in order that any errors in the assessments may be corrected. Also, all persons entitled by law to reduction of taxes, by reason of their being engaged in military services; and also literary or